Chorale and Shaker Dance - Wikipedia

Chorale and Shaker Dance II is a continued development and melding of two musical ideas and statements. The piece is not necessarily written in two movements as the title suggests, but after an introduction statement of the chorale melody is in a rough ternary form. The Shaker tune "Simple Gifts" is the secondary source material.

I first heard Chorale and Shaker Dance (1971) when I was a freshman in high school in 1994. My school was small enough that I had met and become friends with a number of upperclassmen in the band through our Pep Band and Show Choir and things like that. At the time, though, there were 2 bands at my school: the symphonic band (juniors and ...
