Hi, I'm from India and I have a little knowledge about Marmam or the Indian version of Kyusho-Jutsu. Marmams are mainly found in Kalari (an Indian martial art) and my father used to study it, so one day I asked him about it and he told me a few because he was only taught very little on that matter, most of the pressure points were mostly in the head and easy to access but some were very hard ...

Do you remember your very first Karate class? I don't. (Hey, I was like 2 years old!) Do you remember that feeling of putting your white belt on for the first time? For most people, recalling the first time they stepped into the dojo undoubtedly evokes mixed feelings: Nostalgia. Fascination. Curiosity. Sometimes a bit fear.

The Fair Play Trap FAIR play is fine so long as you are playing. However, self-defense is no game, sport, or friendly competition. It is a battle for survival! And unless a student comes firmly to grips with this irrevocable fact, he will be less than fully equipped to defend himself, protect his family, and deal with the predatory scum that comprises a percentage of the human species.

Table tennis, also known as ping-pong, is a sport in which two or four players hit a lightweight ball back and forth across a table using small rackets. The game takes place on a hard table divided by a net. Except for the initial serve, the rules are generally as follows: players must allow a ball played toward them to bounce one time on their side of the table, and must return it so that it ...
