I cannot remember the first time I discovered the joys of cottaging. I know that I was fairly naïve sexually in my early life and it was not until I met a guy in a toilet at Gloucester Road tube station and he asked me if there were any good cottages near to where I lived that I first heard the term.. I suppose I was about eighteen when I realised that public toilets were used for more than ...

Manny Aldous (Suffolk) (photo: courtesy of Mrs Aldous) Manny is one of the few singers I have recorded who almost discovered himself. At least, a phone call from his daughter-in-law, who had heard of my folk-song collecting activities, put me on his trail and a meeting was arranged at her house in Needham Market.
