So I am wanting to build a strip canoe. and I want to do it as cheaply as possible. I was thinking about making my strips from regular 2x4s from Home depot or Lowes or what ever. I have seen the "ripple" 2x4 canoe book, but never seen one built, but i guess i just don't understand why I cant use what ever wood to do the strips. I understand the limiting factors of simple cheap 2x4 lumber is ...
